A Chat with the Junior Family

The Junior Call this week is full of the sort of reading and stories that children like, and will surely be in the hands of the young readers of the Junior Call. Stories of various types will be found to interest them,

A Literary Chat with the Juniors

The Peter Rabbit books, by Anthony Buxton, are particularly good for small children, each a complete story with many pictures. They are well written and attractive, and will be enjoyed by the younger members of the family.

Good Stories in Few Words and Brief, Pointed Poems

The Skytark

The Skylark is a beautiful story, and is particularly suitable for younger children. It tells of a boy who goes to sea and has many adventures. The illustrations are very attractive.

The Skagit

The Skagit is another story for younger children, and is particularly suitable for those who like stories of adventure. It tells of a boy who goes on a journey and has many interesting experiences.

The Gable's Jewels

The Gable's Jewels is a very interesting story, and is particularly suitable for older children. It tells of a boy who goes on a journey and has many adventures.

Seals

Seals is a very interesting story, and is particularly suitable for older children. It tells of a boy who goes on a journey and has many adventures.

Have You Seen a Bright Lily Grew?

Have you ever seen a bright lily grow? These are the days when the flowers are just beginning to bloom. The nights are warm and the days are bright. It is a time of wonderful beauty.

The Cheshire Cat

The Cheshire Cat is a delightful story, and is particularly suitable for younger children. It tells of a cat who has many adventures.

The Sandpiper

The Sandpiper is a delightful story, and is particularly suitable for younger children. It tells of a bird who has many adventures.

A Good Business

What business is to be done? What is the right thing to do? These are questions that every child must ask himself. It is a time of great activity and of many possibilities.

A Talk with the Junior Family

The Junior Call this week is full of the sort of reading and stories that children like, and will surely be in the hands of the young readers of the Junior Call. Stories of various types will be found to interest them.